

Build a relationship with Arsis Global and be considered for new opportunities by registering your professional experience within our global leadership database.

Declaration of Consent

I am interested in having Arsis Global consider my suitability for employment opportunities and where appropriate, submit information about me to potential employers. Accordingly, I agree as follows:

Consent. I hereby authorize Arsis Global to process data about me that I provide or that is collected from publicly accessible sources (such as websites) or third parties ("Personal Data") and consent to the following processing activities for the purpose of providing me with employment opportunities:

- Collect and process personal data such as name, business and private contact data, résumé, qualifications, skills, financial compensation where permitted by local law, testimonials, certifications, records of interviews and assessments, personal interests, hobbies, marital status, background checks and all other information you choose to share with us.
- Share my Personal Data with Arsis Global offices worldwide;
- Transfer my Personal Data to prospective employers worldwide selected by Arsis Global for their review and processing in connection with possible employment opportunities.
- Communicate with me about job or career related topics via e-mail or telephone.

Confidentiality of information from Arsis Global. I commit myself to keep strictly confidential all verbal or written information regarding employment opportunities provided to me by Arsis Global for five years from the disclosure of such information, unless such information is known to the public by other means than a breach of my confidentiality obligations.